

The Aurora Installer Software file is approximately 13 MB in size and may take several minutes to download. The software is a ZIP file and will need to be unzipped for use.

To download the Aurora Installer Software file, you'll need to close this window on your browser and right-click, select Target As on the "Installer Software Download" link to save the software to your system.